Reverend Dr. Thomas Bess, Senior Pastor Officiating

Evelyn Rosetta Robinson Broadus

Evelyn Broadus began her life's journey on December 4, 1944 in Decatur County, Georgia as the youngest child born to the late Rev. Joseph S. and Tiny Robinson. She transitioned to her Heavenly home on February 6, 2017. Evelyn accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was baptized into the faith at Grant Chapel AME Church in Grady County, Georgia. She united with Allen Temple AME Church after moving to Atlanta.

Evelyn began her education in the Decatur County Public Schools graduating from Hutto High School in Bainbridge, GA in 1962. She continued her education at Morris Brown College in Atlanta, GA graduating with a B.S. Degree in Elementary Education. Evelyn is the proud mother of Edward and the wife of the late Eugene Broadus. After enjoying several occupations, she began her teaching career in the Newton County School System, retiring from Palmer Stone Elementary School in 2007. She spent countless hours in preparation for her teaching. Mrs. Broadus was adored by her students and their parents.

At Allen Temple, Evelyn worked with the Women's Missionary Society, Vacation Bible School and Women's Day events. She meticulously decorated the inside of her home for all seasons and holidays, with Christmas being her favorite. Her home became the gathering place for the family.

She was loyal to Morris Brown College. Her donations earned her membership in the President's Club for the most generous annual donors. She was an active member of the MBC National Alumni Association and the Atlanta Alumni Chapter.

Evelyn enjoyed playing bridge as evidenced by her membership in the Gems Bridge Club, the Happy Hour Bridge Club, the Silver Bells and Beaus, and the University Bridge Club. She was a founding member of the Gems Bridge Club now celebrating 35 years. She was a member of the American Charter Bridge League and the American Bridge Association.

She leaves to cherish her memory, one son, Edward Tillman (Raquel) of Charlotte, NC, two grandchildren, Emma and Emery, three sisters, Louise Adams (Henry) Fayetteville, GA, Merlyne Schley, Powder Springs, GA, Mattie Jackson, Las Vegas, NV, sister-in-law, Patricia Mackey, Atlanta, GA, 8 nephews, three nieces, and a host of relatives and friends.
